

KPMG INTERNATIONAL CASE COMPETITION 2016
DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

Fasten your seatbelt.
Your KICC adventure awaits.

kpmg.com/kicc

Experience the fast-paced world of casework, meet new people and travel to places you may never have been before. Network with peers from around the world. Compete among the brightest minds for the global title.

Rise to the occasion.
Push yourself.
Go beyond.

Participating in the KPMG International Case Competition can give you a head start in your career. You can expect to gain valuable real-world experience, learn new skills and have an epic adventure. Experience the fast-paced world of casework and collaborate to conquer complexity. If you get to the top of your national case competition, you'll find yourself on your way to Dubai on an all-expenses-paid trip to the international final.

Get a window into the world of KPMG

KICC is yet another way KPMG's commitment to education goes above and beyond, providing learning experiences through a unique platform that simulates issues faced by organizations worldwide. The feedback you get from KPMG leadership will help you expand your global mindset. KICC 2016 could be the opportunity you've been looking for. Take the leap and see what's possible – you never know what you could achieve or how far you could go.

"The talent of the students who make it to the global final never ceases to amaze me. It's a privilege to bring so many future business leaders here to the magnificent city of Dubai and provide this unique learning experience. The competition, and the cases we challenge them with, represent the type of work our people do for clients every day."

Iain McLaughlin
Head of Global Resourcing, KPMG International

KPMG and KICC quick facts

KICC is one of the largest and most recognized case competitions among the Big Four. In April 2015, 21,000 students from 557 universities across 28 countries came together to participate in KICC.

In 2014, KPMG firms recruited close to 18,000 graduates. That makes us one of the biggest graduate recruiters in the world.

KPMG firms have more than 162,000 people in over 155 countries across the globe, making us one of the largest and most influential professional services organizations in the world.

2,400 KPMG professionals took part in our global mobility program in 2014, taking on assignments in more than 95 countries.

KPMG and you

People with passion have the opportunity to go further at KPMG. KPMG member firms can offer graduates opportunities to explore, advance and inspire.

Learning and development are integral to the KPMG experience, leading to increased personal and professional growth. KPMG people have the opportunity to develop relevant skills via challenging work, talented colleagues and tailored training. They also have access to short- and long-term mobility opportunities that enable them to develop a global mindset via working for prestigious clients around the world.

Advance your career with the support and encouragement you need — from KPMG mentors and career coaches. Working across the global network, stretching engagements and career-enhancing international assignments can accelerate your advancement and offer the reward and recognition that comes with it. On top of that, you'll have the opportunity to make a difference to clients and communities around the world.

Get a glimpse of what it's like.

kpmg.com/kicc