

FRAUD

WEBINAR EVENT

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM FRAUD AND COUNTERFEIT CURRENCY

Moving to a new country to study is exciting and for some of you, it is the first time you are away from your family. This can be stressful as you prepare to live and study in an unfamiliar environment.

It is therefore important for you to learn how to recognize and protect yourself from fraud. Do you know who to call and what to do if you or your friends become a victim?

Presenters and Their Topics:

- 1) The Canadian Border Services Agency will show you the common immigration fraud schemes.
- 2) The Royal Canadian Mounted Police's Federal Policing Prevention and Engagement will discuss the top frauds international students should be aware of and how criminals are reaching out to victims.
- 3) The Bank of Canada will help you understand Canadian currency and what security features it holds, so you don't get stuck with counterfeit bank notes.

Event Hosted In Partnership with the Bank of Canada and the RCMP

Date: March 30, 2022. Time: 3PM PST. Duration: Approximately 2.5 hours.
Cost: None.
